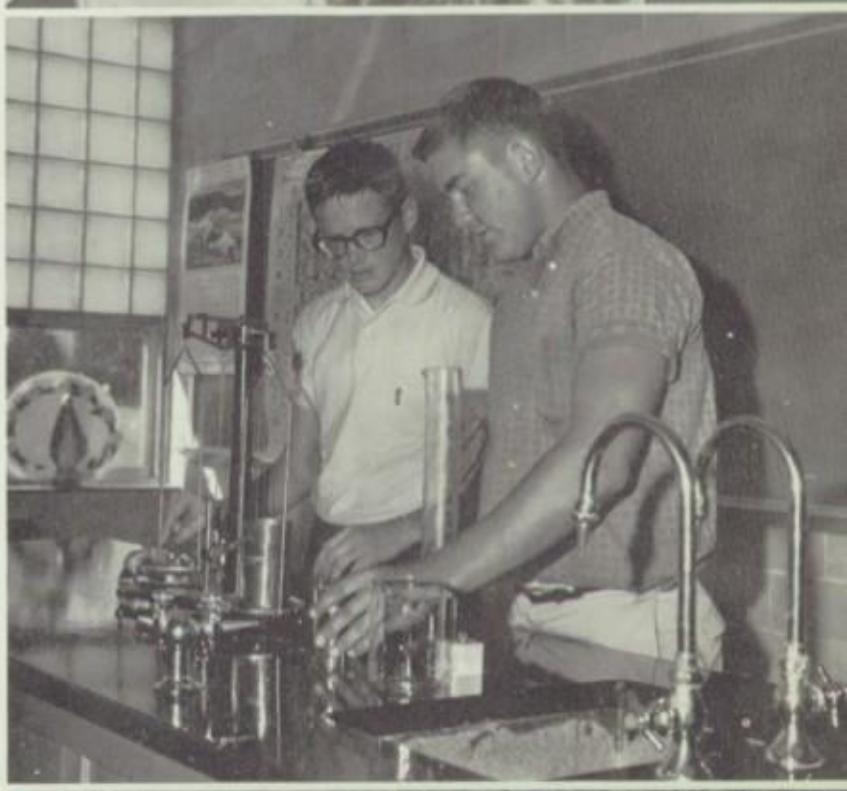
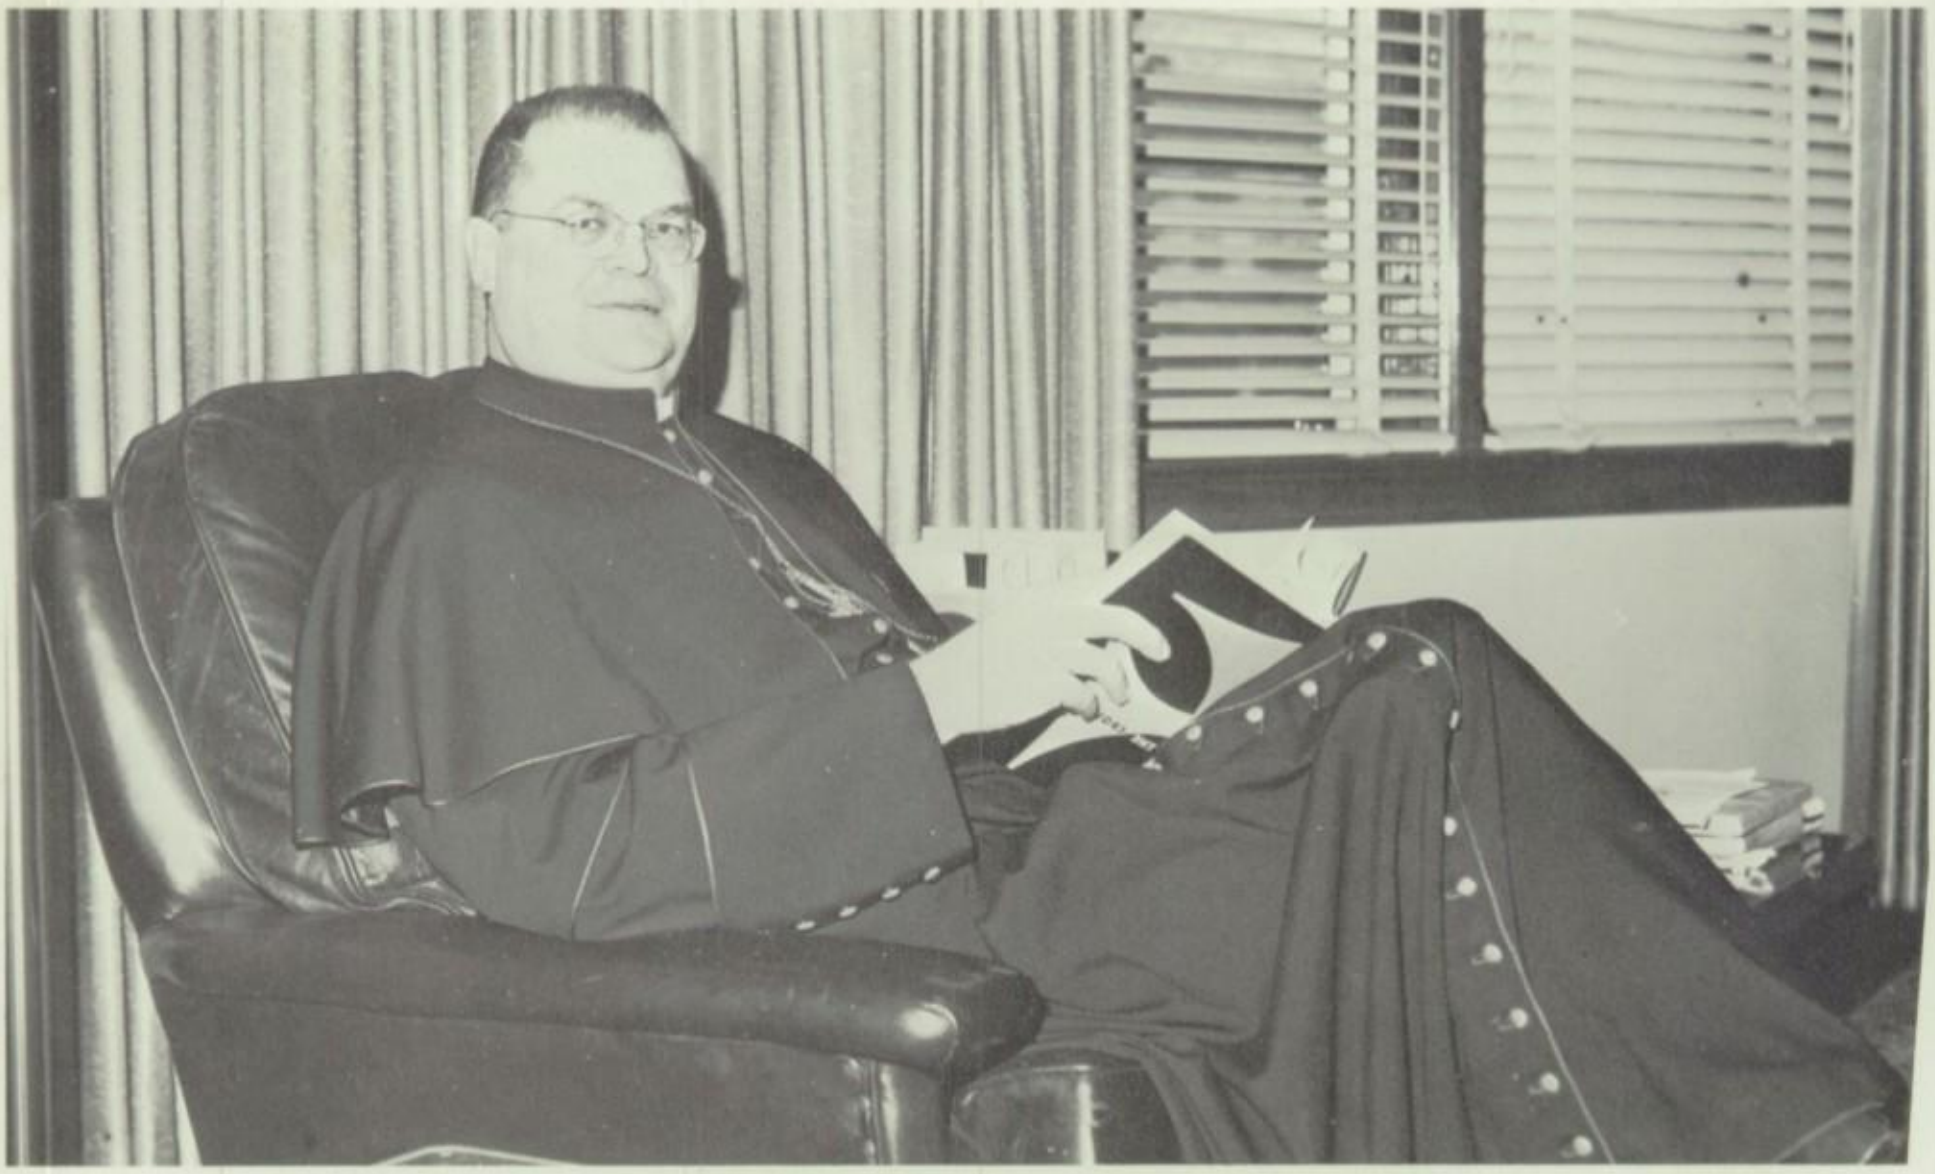
TIDE PENTECOST TRINITY





His Excellency, the Most Reverend HILARY B. HACKER, Bishop of Bismarck.

Bishop Hacker is the guiding light to both students and faculty at St. Mary's Central. He is solicitous about the spiritual, academic and social welfare of each soul and expects St. Mary's students to use every means available to develop leadership qualities characterized by Christian principles. His prayer is that every student lives the year with Christ through an active participation in the liturgy.

ADVISORY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Despite pressing duties and diverse occupations, Bismarck's pastors meet students of their respective parishes at SMCHS once a month. Among many other things, the pastors guide and instruct students on their duties concerning development of good habits as young parishioners. Assisting the Bishop, Pastors, and superintendent are the lay members of the board; Mark Walsh, Leo Schreiner, and Sylvester Schneider.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent's

Message

To be another Christ; to be in Him, and through Him, and with Him, in all our words, actions, and thoughts is what Christ meant when He said, "Be ye perfect." Holy Mother the Church was conscious of Christ's directive and ever conscious of her responsibility to her children to bring this truth to them, sets up her liturgical year. In this year the feasts are so arranged, the seasons so spaced, the rubrics so pointed out, that to LIVE it WELL is to LIVE "in CHRIST, and through Christ and with Christ." The spiritual and supernatural purpose of St. Mary's Central High School is to make each student cognizant of this fact, to help each student to understand this fact, and finally, to counsel and guide each student to live each day of the liturgical year to the utmost. This is the constant daily work and prayer of the faculty of this school.

ACTIVITIES

Queen Yvonne Dietz and King Russell Morris lead the Grand March.

Mardi Gras

Gaily painted masks set the theme of the Mardi Gras Masquerade March 1, 1960, sponsored by Art I and II. Reigning over the annual pre-Lenten celebration were King RUSSELL MORRIS and Queen YVONNE DIETZ, both seniors. Their attendants were: juniors--MARY TSCHIDER and JIM WELCH; sophomores--MARILYN MORRIS and BOB SCHMITZ. Entertainment was provided by junior and senior boy chorus line, can-can girls, pantomines from CASSIE COLLINS and DIANE JIRAN. Costumes ranging from space age robots, SUSIE FREUND and PATTY MITZEL, to ancient historical figures, such as Roman Gladiator PAUL FISHER, tied for prizes.

REVIEWED

DEEP PURPLE

Junior-Senior Banquet

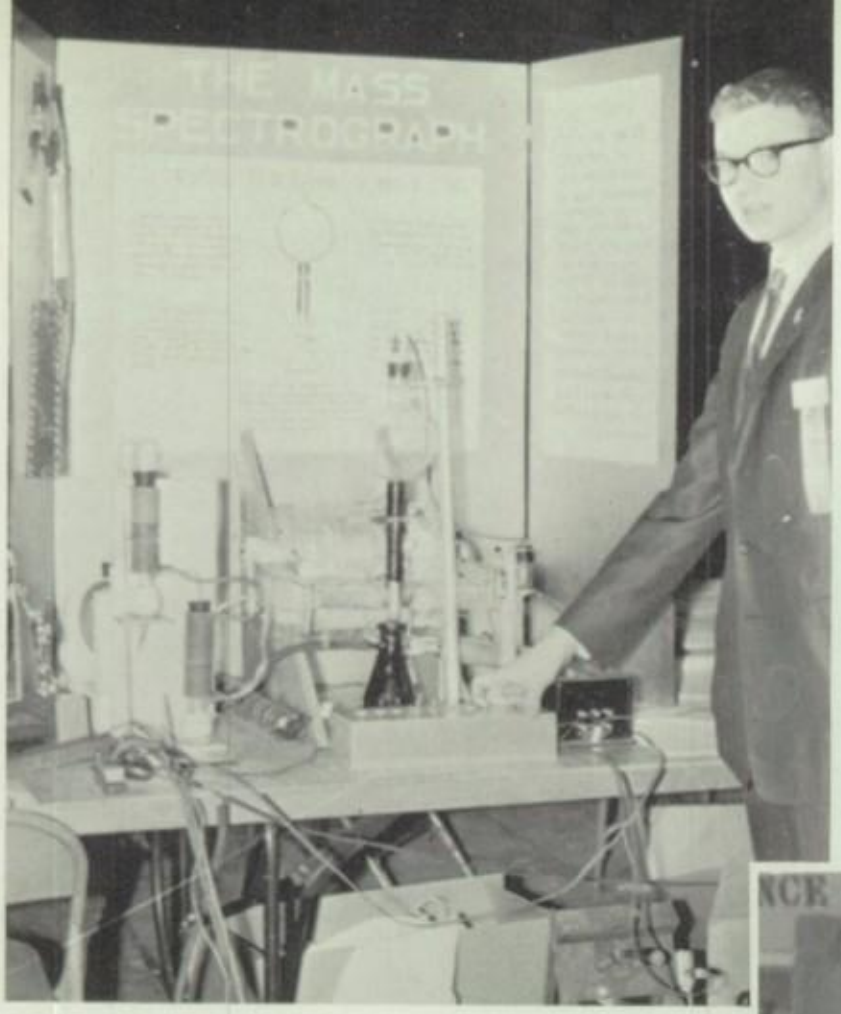
In the melody of "Deep Purple", amid "paper" skyscrapers, and the atmosphere of a penthouse garden, juniors feted the senior class, April 26, 1960. Highlight of the lavendar and purple decorations was a grotto featuring a statue of Our Lady. Another attraction was the "Senior Hall of Fame", depicting seniors in their childhood. Main speakers for the occasion were Monsignor WILLIAM F. GARVIN and Father BECWAR, principal. KAREN KRELLER sang the "Deep Purple" theme song and a medley was sung by MARY JOHNSON-BOUGH, JUDY PRISKE, and ELLEN STANTON. The "Basin City Eight" supplied dance music.

Frank Schmidt, Claudia Casey, Judy Coleman and Marty Heffron admire the grotto of Our Lady.

Carolyn Aller, Eileen Ehreth, Katie Whitaker, and Marcia Taylor prepared banquet decorations.

District and State Science Fairs

St. Mary's Central High hosted the 1960 District Science Fair (March 26) and the State Science Fair (April 9th), in which local and out of town students displayed scientific projects. Exhibits were judged on the basis of individual study, effort, and conclusions reached. Two projects from each district were chosen to represent the state in the National Science Fair at Butler University, Indianapolis, Ind. Adults and students who observed the projects gained insight and knowledge of the vast field of Science.



"The Mass Spectrograph" won Peter Mazur of Fargo the STATE SWEEP-STAKES TROPHY.

Frances Weis, SMCHS student, earned a first alternate award in the State Science Fair with her exhibit on "Chemiluminescence."

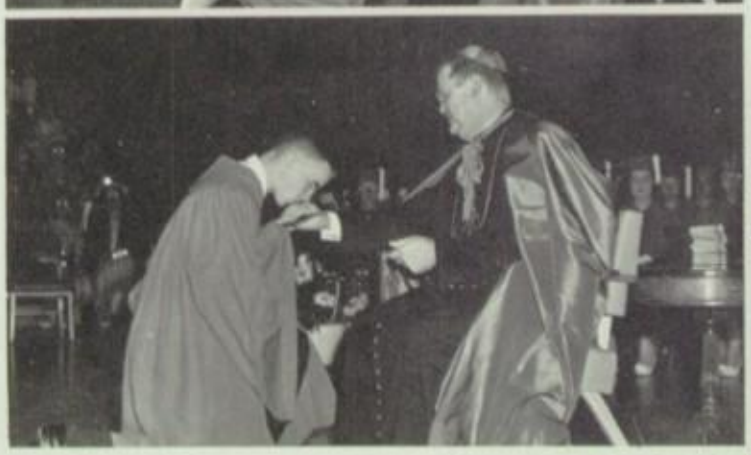
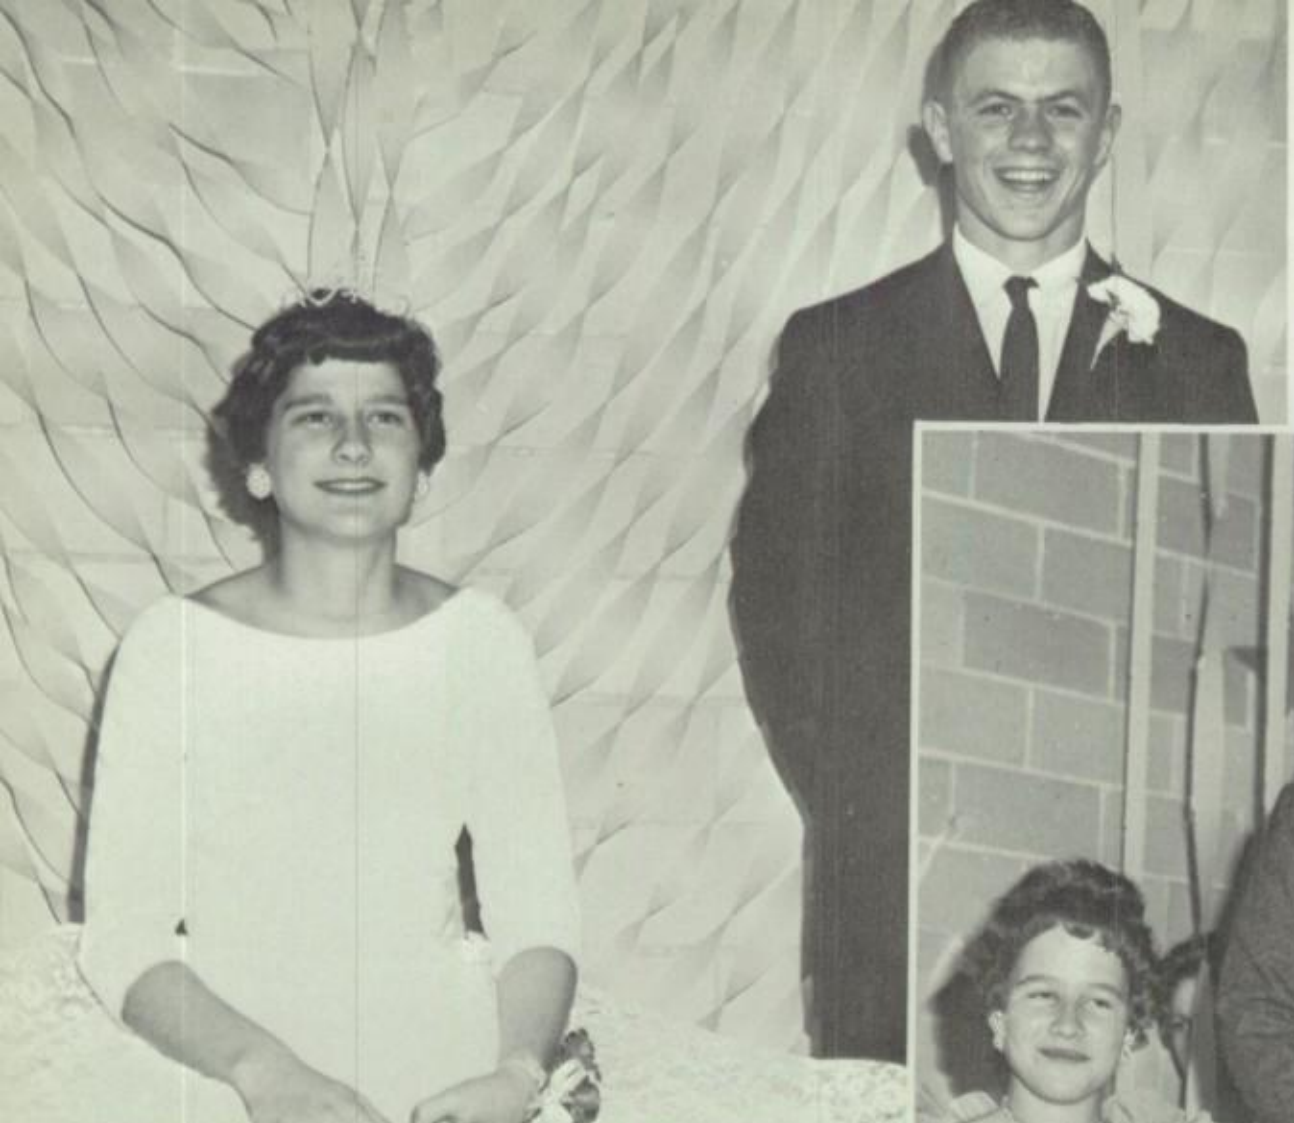
Graduation

The traditional Baccalaureate Mass was celebrated at the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit, May 22, 1960, by Monsignor William F. Garvin. After Baccalaureate ceremonies, seniors were paid tribute at a breakfast served and arranged by the juniors. Graduating ceremonies of the 1960 senior class took place on Ascension Thursday, April 26. An address was given by His Excellency Hilary B. Hacker, Bishop of Bismarck.



Patrica Mitzel and George Seaworth received diplomas from Bishop Hacker.



Queen MARY TSCHIDER and her accompanying court ruled over SMC homecoming celebrations October 21, 1960. Her attendants were: JUDY PRISKE, escorted by GEORGE WELDER; JEANNE WYNGARDEN, escorted by JIM WELCH; VICKI REIS, escorted by CHUCK McGURREN; and MARCIA TAYLOR, escorted by JOE SAHLI. The royal float carrying the queen and her court, led the homecoming parade throughout downtown Bismarck at 2 P.M. Friday. Evening festivities were initiated with the traditional bonfire followed by a snake dance to Hughes Field where St. Mary's defeated the Minot Magicians 33-0. The marching band performed a half-time show in tribute to the queen. Afterwards there was a homecoming dance in St. Mary's recreation room, honoring the queen and her attendants.

Mary-likeness is the basis for election of St. Mary's homecoming queen. In the estimation of the student body, MARY TSCHIDER came the closest in displaying Mary-like qualities in her everyday life. She was chosen Governor of Girls' State and participant in Girls' Nation in 1960. Besides being an outstanding student, Mary is active in various school activities including debate, pep club, and student council.

DIED APRIL 26, 1960

Though the certainity of dying may sadden us,
The assurance of future immortality gladdens us,
To those who have faith in You, LORD,
Life does not cease--
It merely changes!
And when our earthly dwelling falls to ruin,
We find an eternal home in HEAVEN.

STUDENT MISSION

Reverend LUKE CONNELLY, CP.

REVEREND LUKE CONNELLY, CP, directed the freshmen and sophomores during the St. Mary's Central Student Mission November 14-18. In the course of his talks Father explained the obligation of teenagers to possess the virtue of purity, deeper respect for God and His sacraments, and the need to meditate on the Passion of Christ. One of the points Father Connelly urged was, "Be ready for death-when and where it comes, by frequent reception of the sacraments."

Solemn Benediction being given by FATHER CONNELLY

GRACE NOW
GLORY HEREAFTER

Reverend GODFREY POAGE, CP.

Father POAGE offered the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

YOUTH GUIDANCE DIRECTOR . . .

Enthusiastic Father POAGE injected humor into his talks. After group conferences both priests were available for private consultations.

Reverend GODFREY POAGE, CP, addressed juniors and seniors during the annual student mission at St. Mary's, November 14-18. Father Poage instructed his student group in a series of religious talks including the Blessed Virgin, preparation for marriage, prayer, participation at Mass and the sacraments.

In one lecture Father defined sin as a wilful omission against the law of God. He went on to explain that venial sin blemishes the soul while mortal sin cuts us off from supernatural life. Father suggested ways to overcome temptation. As soon as one is tempted physically, he should say a Hail Mary. "But prayer alone will never overcome physical temptation unless you want God to work a miracle and that is tempting God. The prayer must be immediately followed by some action that will distract you."

His most moving and inspiring talk concerned the short and holy life of St. Maria Goretti, who died rather than commit the sin of impurity. Just 40 years after her death, Maria was canonized a saint by Pope Pius XII. This is why she has been proclaimed the modern patroness of purity and the model of youth in a secular world where morals are constantly being challenged.

During his talk on Judgment Father gave the key to a successful life which is simple in itself but vitally important, "The only thing that matters is your soul and the answer you give to God."

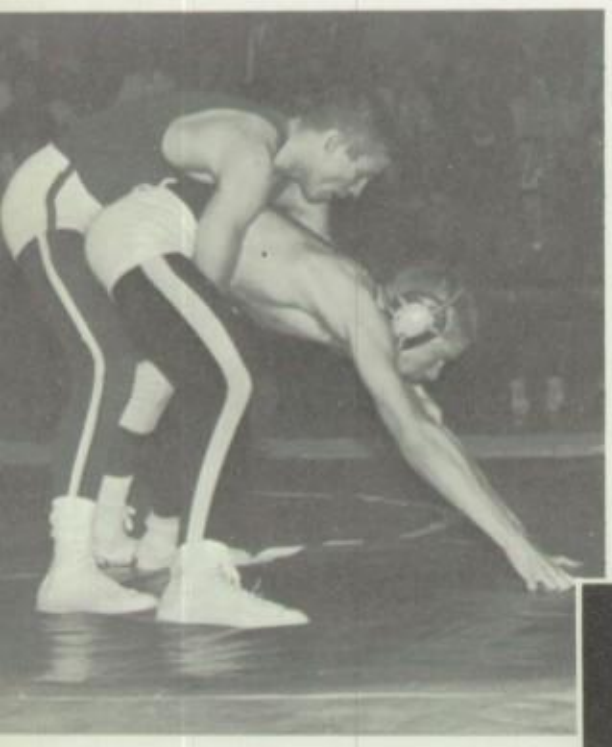
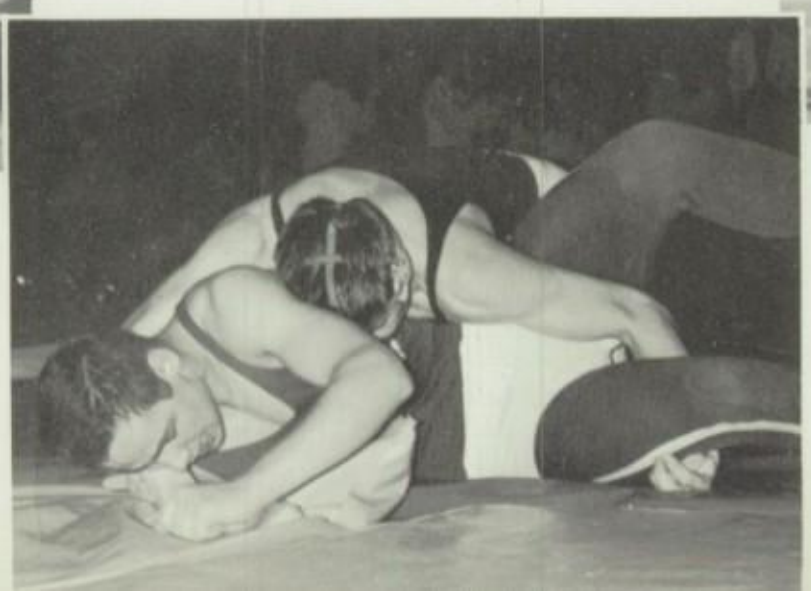
WRESTLING

In their third season of competition St. Mary's grapplers won many individual victories in high school meets throughout the year. After qualifying in the District Tournament, February 18-19, four Central mat men were eligible to compete in the state match. The team is under the supervision of Coaches Dave O'Brien and Earl Steidler.



Tom Blann attempts to overcome his opponent in the St. Mary's-Bismarck match.



Struggling against Vince Fink (BHS), Tom Rausch (SMC) seeks to gain control.

LENT

Through bodily fasting we suppress
Our vices, elevate our minds, and gain
Strength and reward.
